

President's Message

Spring has sprung, if only unofficially. The first flowers are in bloom and the smell of Dreamville is in the air. Many of us look forward to the Festival which gives Boylan Heights the opportunity to roll out the welcome mat of hospitality for this high-energy signature event April 4-5. Let's show people how friendly and enthusiastic our neighborhood is and what makes it THE place to live.

The Best of Boylan fundraiser is in full swing. There are some wonderful offerings. In addition to being the benefactor of the wonderful prizes, your generous bid supports our Association activities, including our charitable giving program for worthy non-profit organizations in and around our neighborhood.

The BH Progressive Dinner is a fun event coming up on April 26. Let the hard-working committee know as early as possible how you wish to participate. It truly helps with their planning.

See the Agenda for a jam-packed March meeting to include a presentation on community emergency preparedness, an update on the BH tree canopy replenishment and a second vote on text changes to the BH By-laws - check it out.

Lastly, we are coming up on Association elections in May. If you are interested in joining the Board as a volunteer, reach out to me president@boylanheights.org or another Board member.

See you in the 'hood,
Mike Motsinger

Thanks to all who have supported
Best of Boylan 2025!
We are thrilled to be able to celebrate so many amazing items and the generosity of our neighbors while supporting our community.

The auction will close on Monday, March 17th at 5pm.
Will you be the lucky bidder?

Local Limericks for March

My Family

My mom is very small
My dad is very tall
My brothers are cool
We like to go to the pool
And we like to play ball

Lucy Hollander, 7 on 3/26- Happy Birthday, Lucy!

My dog is my best friend
She really likes to bend
She got on the couch
She sat up and slouched
And I watched her paw extend

Leo Hollander, Age 8

When you're walking in Boylan say "Hey, there!"
Every time that you see a dear neighbor
The spring flowers bloom bright
The air fills with delight and I'm feeling real lucky to live here

The Boylan community shines bright
We gather with art, food and delight
With talents to share
Contribute your gifts with care
And help our neighborhood soar to new heights

Rishi Donat
